

Karen graduated from the Guildhall school of Music and Drama after four years formal training. Her stage performances cover a wide range of musical styles. After leaving college Karen joined the cast of Phantom of the Opera (Cameron Mackintosh) She then joined Crystal Clear Opera Company to perform for two years in their touring production of Die Fledermaus. Karen has also been guest soloist for Swan Hellenic Cruises, Night Waves for BBC Radio 3 and The Players Theatre London Music hall.

Her Oratorio soloist repertoire includes The Messiah, The Creation, Vivaldi's Gloria and Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise. She has given solo Recitals at St James' Piccadilly, Southwark Cathedral, Leighton House and many other city churches.

These days Karen mostly sings with several Glenn Miller style Big bands, function bands and small jazz groups all over the UK. Karen also finds much joy in sharing her love of singing and music by teaching and conducting choirs, notably the Kent County Junior Singers, the Ashford Community Choir, Kantar Choir in London Bridge and her school choir in Maidstone. In November 2019 Karen conducted 180 children from the South East live on BBC Television for the Children in need television show.
